

2009 Port Credit Boat Show Sells Out!

Ontario's premier in-water boat show, the Port Credit Boat Show will be held at Port Credit Harbour Marina, August 28 to 30th, 2009. Walk the docks, and view both new AND used power and sail boats – and maybe even catch a few deals right at the show!

“We have a great assortment of boats to view this year”, says Lori Mason, show manager and proprietor of The Store Makers. “It’s our 19th year, our docks are absolutely full, and we are pleased to say that we indeed have a boat for everyone’s budget”. Lori, Jack and Bette Mason at the coffee booth Crates Marine will feature their 50’ Profil Cherokee a unique sport boat manufactured in Italy. As the dealer for Regal and Carver boats, they are planning a selection of both lines. Ontario Sea Ray dealer, Skyline Marine is bringing five from their Sea Ray line including the new 270, 280 and 310. Pride Marine, a first-time exhibitor and dealer for Chris-Craft and Pursuit boats will be there, as well as Dundas Marine with a demo-clear-out deal on a 2008 Champion 26’ bowrider. The Chaparral line will be back, brought to you by Sandy Cove Marine. North 44 Marine will be representing Brigg Inflatables as well as two of their own brokerage boats. North South Nautical Group will be showing two larger power boat models, and all dealers will have a complete list of inventory. On the sailboat side, Anchor Yachts will be showing their entire Beneteau line from 31’ to 46’ including a Lagoon 380 Catamaran, and some of their brokerage boats. Bridge Yachts, a Lake Erie dealer, will be representing Precision Sailboats, and will be bringing their Canadian-built Sea Breeze power boat. Navy Point, representing Jeanneau and Island Packet, will also be participating with their new boat lines and bringing – used C&C 32 and CS 33. Pat Sturgeon Yachts will be displaying seven boats in-water including their new Hansa 400. True North Yachts, the new Hunter dealers for Ontario, will have a full compliment of Hunters including the largest of the fleet, a brand new 50’ model. North Lakes Yachting is returning with the Delphia Yacht, as is Swans Yacht Sales who represents the Catalina, Tartan and C&C lines. Come and see their new 2010 Catalina 445. On the hard, will be land displays featuring marine equipment, insurance, finance, charters, internet boat sales, boating associations, yacht sharing programs, canvas makers and the Coast Guard. And Ontario’s own Consignment Tent for boat “stuff”. If you are missing a turnbuckle, you just may find it here at the show. All proceeds from the tent go to local junior sailing programs. Want to know about cruising down in the Caribbean? Want to learn how to read the weather clouds? Curious about the boating lifestyle? Just bought a bow thruster and not too confident on how to use it yet? Check out the 'Speakers tent'. Rob MacLeod from Informedboater.com will be back with a complete slate of boating experts who will be happy to answer your boating questions. And it’s convenient to reach Port Credit’s BOATING SUPER CENTRE located only 15 minutes west of Toronto, and 10 minutes east of Oakville. Parking is free.
